EDITORIAL.

STUDENTS' ADDRESSES.

The Editor thanks all those students who have kindly replied to her appeal by sending their addresses. Owing to another severe illness in her own home, she regrets that it has been impossible to tabulate them for printing in this number. They shall appear in June without fail, by which time it is hoped all will have notified their whereabouts, as some have already done.

Instead, a list is printed of those students who do belong to the Association in order that they, realising who yet remain without, may do their utmost to bring them in.
